"Election Campaign at GIU"

In GIU's halls, on a sunny day
Election campaigns, in every way
Pharmacy seniors, leading strong
Others joining, a diverse throng
March 14th, a date to mark
Students casting votes, in the spark
Choosing presidents, vice-presidents too
For societies, old and new
Posters bright, on every wall
Telling stories, big and small
MBBS, DPT, and more
All joining in, a lively score
So let's cheer on, this democratic fest,
In GIU's elections, let's all be blessed
Choosing leaders, for the years to come
In this campaign, let's all be one

Intra-Department Literary Competition, organized by Capacity Enhancement Cell (CEC) Department of Pharmacy, on 21st March 2024.

The event was full of sooth voices of students remembering Allah Almighty in the form of Tilawat and praising His Prophet (PBUH) in the form of Naat.

It was also an intellectual display of thoughts of students in the form of debates in Urdu with the Topic “Kia Imtehan Dena Zarori Hai” and the English Topic “Social Media is Making People Less Social”. Awards & Certificates were distributed among the participants of the competition by Head of Department Dr. Mueen Ahmed Ch.

The students of Law & Moot Society took great pride in their Sindhi culture and traditions. As a symbol of their cultural heritage and respect, they incorporated beautiful tradition of presenting "AJRAK" to their faculty members and fellow students.

GIU Law & Moot Society Celebrated

Sindhi Culture

The "AJRAK" upholds deep significance in Sindhi culture, symbolizing hospitality, respect, and warmth. By presenting this traditional cloth, the students expressed their gratitude and honor towards their mentors and fellow society members.

This gesture not only fosters a sense of cultural belonging and pride but also strengthens the bonds within the GIU Law & Moot Society community. It reflects the richness of diversity within the university and promotes cross-cultural understanding and appreciation.

Inter-Universities Poster Competition on "Mental Health"

Department of Psychology Green International University provided their students an opportunity to participate in the inter-universities Poster competition organized by GC University Lahore on celebrating "Mental Health Week". Under the supervision of Ms. Naila Jamil (HOD, Department of Psychology), students of GIU showed their creativity and excellent ideas on the given topic of "Mental Health is a Universal Human Right". Ideas were revealed through making different posters and models and gained appreciation by the judges and senior psychologists. GIU management always encourages its students to explore their creativity and real potential by providing such wonderful opportunities.
